

The Daily Astorian.
ASTORIA, OREGON:
THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1881
D. C. IRELAND, Editor.

Condition of the President.

The unfavorable symptoms which made their appearance Monday afternoon have entirely subsided. The President passed a very comfortable, restful night, and Tuesday morning his pulse was 96, temperature 99.6. This would seem to indicate that the increased pulse and temperature of Monday evening were merely a temporary fluctuation; due, as the surgeons supposed at the time, to some momentary tax upon his nervous system, rather than to any permanent unfavorable change. The fact that his pulse and temperature sometimes run up denotes nothing unusual. So long as the pulse does not rise higher than 110 there is no reason for anxiety. He has passed the critical period and is now on the high way to recovery.

King Williams Head Level.

A Mormon tramp by the name of Schramm, says the Salt Lake Tribune, writes from Germany as follows: "The message we sent a short time ago to the rulers of Baden was returned with the answer that the Mormons were to be treated as socialists, and not allowed to hold meetings. The city director of Mannheim, seeing in this decision an acceptance by his superiors of his previous actions, thought to carry the oppression still further, and therefore he informed one of the local elders that if even four members of our church could be discovered in the act of holding a meeting, they would be fined 150 marks and be imprisoned for four months if they were citizens of Baden, and if citizens of other countries they would be not only fined, but also banished from Germany. This unjust action, of course, was rather unexpected; still we are contented because we know that God rules. We will very soon punish this proud nation for the refusal of the gospel, and the injustice done the service of God." Old King Billy is business all over, and knows how to treat the polygamous frauds of the latter-day saints.

The total cost of the Whitaker investigation so far totals up $16,300. A rather expensive pair of ears were those of Whitakers.

An idiotic or insane man was arrested at Otero, Nebraska, last week, on a charge of trying to wreck a passenger train. Future legislative assemblies and congress will be obliged to take this sort of bull by the horns and provide a way to keep them safe from harm on either side. It is a sort of contagion that must not be allowed to spread annually.

An eastern journal recalls the misfortunes that have overtaken the Garfield family within a few months. The venerable mother of the president sickened shortly after her arrival at the capital, and was obliged to return home. Then the wife was prostrated, and lay at death's door for many days. The family physician was summoned from her bedside to that of a cousin who had been wounded by a railway-crossing accident which had killed an uncle. And then came the worst of all; the news with which the country is filled to-day.

The reports affecting Mr. Blaine's health have spread all over the country, and resulting in something as amusing as annoying. Every day the express and mails bring boxes of medicines and all the nostrums and cure-alls, it would seem, ever made in this country. Accompanying these is a note from the proprietor of the medicine to Mr. Blaine, promising to cure if the medicine is used, and only asking in return that Mr. Blaine write saying how much good the medicine has done him. He will soon be able to stock a drug store.

A novel musical instrument, composed of stones, has lately been introduced in England, the makers having been eleven years collecting and tuning the stones, which vary from six inches to four feet in length, and are placed on bands of straw. The tone produced is said to be very sweet.

THE NEWS.

Thermometer in Cincinnati on the 12th, 102 degrees. Thirteen sunstrokes, mostly fatal.

Twenty-two socialists have been banished from Leipzig. A social printing house at Dresden has closed and the employees arrested.

The Russian minister of war proposes to discontinue the construction of fortifications on German an Austrian frontiers begun by his predecessor, thereby saving 10,000,000 roubles in the annual budget.

The passenger war which has broken out in the east on west bound traffic is a hot and determined one. It would not be strange if passengers could before the end of the week go from Chicago to New York for $5.

Present floods in Iowa have never been equalled. The water is four feet high on car tracks at Marshalltown. Immense damage has been done to railroad and other property, amounting to $200,000 and upwards in the city alone. Besides, great damage is done to crops.

One of Geo. Francis Trains characteristic effusions, respecting the assassination of the President, has reached District Attorney Corkhill, at Washington, for the "citizen assassin." Train offers his congratulations in his usual crazy style, closing thus: "As no one seems your friend, will you accept my services as your counsel? Success guaranteed in advance." Such a letter as Train writes only lacks courage to do an act such as Guiteau did.

Max Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

Zeplars in all colors and shades at six cents an ounce, at the California store, post-office corner.

A tremendous stock of home made candles, at the Astoria Candy Factory, next door to the City Book store. Opposite the bell tower.

Card from Mr. Quinn.
EDITOR ASTORIAN:—Noticing an article in your issue of the 12th regarding the picking up of a boat and net and pretended charges connected therewith, I can only regret that I was not in Astoria at the time. I am sorry to hear that the persons referred to did not obtain the salvage and net, but one of them told the other that he would pay him $100 and net behind, or I would pay them $10 for taking the boat to Iwaco. Then they said they would take $50 and deliver the boat and net to Iwaco, and would deliver that a reasonable charge, to which I agreed and paid the money. JAMES QUINN.
